

A top-down view of a light blue ceramic bowl filled with a variety of fried snacks. The bowl contains golden-brown potato chips, thick-cut onion rings, and several pieces of breaded and fried items, possibly chicken or fish. The bowl is set on a white wooden surface with visible grain and some staining. A semi-transparent dark grey rectangular box is overlaid on the right side of the bowl, containing the text 'cereals, crisps & bar snacks' in a white, sans-serif font.
